In the end, after all, millions of Jews and millions of Palestinians will stay here and live here in this land. Despite the dreams of the extremists - no one is going anywhere. If we understand this (and who isn't just delusional), then the only way to survive here is together, in Israeli-Palestinian peace. This is the future and it is the only choice we have that includes life -

“On the evening of Friday, October 27, at exactly four o’clock, it was my last phone call with my parents and all of my siblings. It felt as if they were bidding me farewell with their voices filled with tears. Their voice was breaking up because the phone call got cut off due to the weakness of the communications network.

I am now thousands of meters away from my family, and I don’t know anything about them. The only thing I can do now is pray for them to be safe and to not be targeted by any of the airstrikes of this brutal occupation.”

Awad Darawshe, a Arab-Israeli and paramedic from a Nazareth suburb who was stationed at the Nova music festival when the attack started. Many of his colleagues fled the scene for their lives, but Awad refused to do so. He insisted on staying put and helping the injured who were pouring into his station. His family members told Israeli media that Awad told them he would be safe because he speaks Arabic, not realizing that his Arabic would not save him from the barbarity of the Islamic Republic of Iran's terror proxies. Awad was murdered while trying to save lives.

Hamas committed a horrible massacre. Since then, all of us, Israelis and Palestinians broken, hurting and bleeding. For all of us, this is a dark period in our lives. Funerals, the mourning, the hard news - no one in our society is immune from the wave of death and terror that has been washing over us for over a month. There is no doubt and must not be: Hamas is an enemy of Israelis and the Palestinians and of the idea of Israeli-Palestinian peace. And therefore, first of all it is important for us to say: If there is something that can really defeat him - it's exactly this peace. That is why even on the hardest days, that is where we need to head. And there is no choice but to say: it does not pass a policy whose whole purpose is revenge. It doesn't pass with a huge killing of innocents in Gaza, thousands of children among them. It doesn't go through the claim that everyone who lives in Gaza is sentenced to death.

In Gaza people live, they suffer like us, fear like us. And they just like us they are not going anywhere. Millions of Jews and millions of Palestinians will continue to live in this land, and will continue to call it home. We must understand this, we must strive for peace. This is certainly not an easy road, but history proves that this is the road that achieves long-term security and saves lives. Therefore our call as a Jewish Arab joint peace movement is to end this war immediately and forever, to stop the killing of innocents, to isolate the extremists in both peoples, and to move in the only direction that can guarantee true security for Israel. Everyone who lives here - Israeli Palestinian peace.
